Given article text here The DepEd has uploaded the third quarter Self-Learning Modules through Deped Commons, which are designed to support learners in understanding how materials and activities work in the new normal. The modules aim to provide information, activities, and new learning opportunities for learners to develop essential skills and 21st-century competencies. Ang mga mag-aaral ay hinihiling ng pagtulong sa kanilang mga guro habang nagpapagamit ng mga materyales na ito. Ang modyul na ito ay ginawa upang madala ang mga pagkakaon sa pagkatuto at bigyan ng kakayahang may tiwala sa sarili sa mga mag-aaral. Ang mga sumusunod na paalala ay mahahalagang tandaan: 1. Gamitin ang modyul nang may pag-iingat at huwag lalagyan ng marka o sulat. 2. Basahin ang mga panuto bago gawin ang bawat gawain. 3. Maging tapat sa pagsasagawa ng mga gawain at pagwawasto ng mga kasagutan. Ang mga mag-aaral ay inaalokang mabigyan ng malalim na pang-unawa at makahulugang pagkatuto sa pamamagitan ng modyul na ito. This step involves testing the teaching and learning materials with a group of target students. The goal is to determine if the materials are suitable for them. If not, the materials need to be adjusted or changed based on the feedback from the test. Teachers can create their own materials or adapt existing ones to better suit their needs. They assess textbooks by observing what works and what doesn't, then add their own style and approach.
