I love this and find myself picking my phone up and playing when I have a 'spare' 5 minutes (which I actually don't have really!) Very frustrating though when you have all of the words but just can't figure out the order for them all to drop!! @ I play for hours until I've beat it.....or run out of overtime for the day!!58 people found this review helpful!Did you find this helpful? Flag inappropriate!Show review history! used to really like this app. And I understand the ads. I had gotten used to them in between boards.....But now, popping up right in the MIDDLE of playing a board!!!! Unacceptable!! Time to UNinstall! UPDATE: I thought I would give it a chance to see if it would be fixed. A "screen shot" won't do anything, the pop up ad looks just like the ads IN BETWEEN the boards! They are coming more frequently and when I CAN 'close' them screen goes black! I then have to start my game over! Now I star!42 people found this review helpful!Did you find this helpful?Hello Mark, thank you for bringing this up. Ads do help us keep the game free but don't worry you should always have an option to remove them by purchasing certain hint packages. I frequently use an ad-removal option.Fun challenging game, the game gets 4 stars, playing the game was of hand. Ads will pop up sometimes after each word is solved. If my screen times out while looking for a word, an ad will come up when I turn on the screen The ads will also shut off any music app I listen to while playing. If I want the music back on I have to leave the game app to restart the music. When I return to Wordbrain an ad pops up shutting off the music AGAIN. I dont play in this new release! more people found this review helpful!Did you find this helpful?Hello Bill! We apologize for the inconvenience you have experienced.
