

Click to verify

Festival madrid 2025

Editorial credit: Escuela de Actores Voluntarios On May 2, 1808, Andrés Torrejón and Simón Hernández, then mayors of Móstoles, signed the Bando de la Independencia in favor of the uprising against the French. It happened on the same day that the people of Madrid took to the streets to confront Napoleon's feared army and, against all odds, won the battle against the emperor years later. The War of Independence, by highlighting the bravery of the ordinary Madrileño, has been painted by Francisco de Goya and used for documentaries and films. Today it is also the scenario on which the dramatized routes of Móstoles are based, shows organized by the Department of Culture, Development and Tourism Promotion that keep this historical period in everyone's memory. View this post on Instagram The Móstoles School of Volunteer Actors will be in charge of interpreting the events that took place in the municipality on May 2. The tour will start at the Tourist Office (Plaza del Pradillo) and will continue through the streets of downtown. Some of the places it will pass through are the Hermitage of Nuestra Señora de los Santos, the Church of Nuestra Señora de la Asunción and the Andrés Torrejón House Museum. There will be two passes to attend the route: one at 11:00 and the other at 12:00. Tickets are required, but the good news is that they can be purchased free of charge at the City Museum or by e-mail. Al Bano & Romina Power are not just a musical duo; for decades they were the reflection of an era that danced between hope and melancholy. On May 24, they will sing together again after more than..... Get here your subscriptions and day tickets for the 2025 edition of A Summer Story. With the summer solstice just around the corner, A Summer Story returns to turn the City of Rock Arganda..... The fun stays a little longer: The FRIENDS™ Experience is extending dates and you still have time to get your tickets here. We know: you still haven't plopped down on Central Perk's iconic..... Get your tickets here for the Museum of Happiness, the happiest place in Madrid. In a city that sometimes goes too fast, this museum proposes to stop, observe and share. A place to explore..... Get your tickets for Enlightenment and experience a tribute to Vivaldi before it closes its doors. The Four Seasons, one of the most important pieces in the history of classical music, comes to..... Your tickets for St. Patrick's Fiesta at the Hippodrome here. The Madrid Hippodrome will be transformed this weekend into Ireland's national holiday: St. Patrick's Day. For two days, Saturday 29 and S... As with other holidays of the year, Father's Day is a good reason to honor one (or two) of the people who have done everything possible to make you the functional adult you are today. Now, every parent is cut from... They say that cats are crepuscular animals, that is, they wake up and activate all their instincts to look for the maximum both at dusk and at dawn. Madrid has something to welcome all those cats that come out of the cave in the... Madrid se prepara para vivir un 2025 repleto de festivales que no te puedes perder. La capital de España, conocida por su enorme vida cultural y artística, será el escenario de eventos musicales, artísticos y gastronómicos que atraerán a miles de personas de todo el mundo. Desde los festivales más conocidos hasta nuevas propuestas que prometen sorprender, aquí te presentamos los mejores festivales en Madrid en 2025 que no te puedes perder. - Mad Cool Festival 2025:Julio de 2025, Recinto de IFEMA MadridEl Mad Cool Festival se ha consolidado como uno de los eventos de música más importantes de Europa. En 2025, promete superar todas las expectativas con un cartel de artistas de talla mundial. Este festival reúne géneros como el rock, el indie, la electrónica y el pop, convirtiéndose en una experiencia única para los amantes de la música en directo.- Tomavistas 2025:Del 29 al 31 de mayo de 2025El festival Tomavistas regresa en 2025 con su inigualable propuesta de música alternativa, consolidándose como uno de los eventos imprescindibles para los amantes del indie, el rock y la música alternativa. Conocido por su lema «Tan de Madrid como Tomavistas», este festival ha sido una cita obligada para quienes valoran la calidad musical y la diversidad en su cartel.- Alma Festival 2025:Del 19 de junio al 2 de julio de 2025, Parque Enrique Tierno GalvánEl Alma Festival se destaca por su propuesta de conciertos de calidad en el entorno natural del parque Enrique Tierno Galván. Con una programación de artistas nacionales e internacionales, el evento busca conectar a los asistentes con la música y la naturaleza. La edición 2025 ya ha confirmado la participación de dos pesos pesados: Wilco y The Corrs.- Sound Isidro 2025: Del 26 de abril al 12 de junio de 2025Si hay un evento que defiende el valor de la música en directo en pequeños formatos, es el Sound Isidro. Este festival se distribuye a lo largo de dos meses (abril y junio) y convierte a las salas de conciertos de Madrid en los principales exponentes de la música en vivo. Espacios icónicos como Sirco, Shôko, The Basement, BUT, El Sótano, El Sol, Independence o Wurliizer Ballroom abrirán sus puertas para recibir a artistas emergentes y consolidados.- A Summer Story 2025: 20 y 21 de junio de 2025, Ciudad del RockCon la llegada del verano, el mejor plan para los amantes de la música electrónica es, sin duda, el A Summer Story. Este festival ha crecido exponencialmente y se ha consolidado como uno de los mayores eventos de música electrónica de España. Con una escenografía de luces y sonido impactante, recibe a miles de personas listas para bailar durante dos noches de puro frenesí musical.- Reggaeton Beach Festival 2025:19 y 20 de julio de 2025Si el reggaetón y la música urbana son lo tuyo, el Reggaeton Beach Festival es tu destino ideal. Este evento se ha convertido en la cita más esperada del año para los amantes del género, ya que combina música, gastronomía y entretenimiento. Además de los conciertos de los artistas internacionales más importantes del reggaetón, el festival ofrece actividades como food trucks, hinchables y atracciones acuáticas para refrescarte mientras disfrutas de la música.- Brava Madrid 2025:19 y 20 de septiembreLa mezcla de música, moda y fantasía se da cita en el Brava Madrid, uno de los festivales más originales y coloridos de la ciudad. Con un fuerte componente de estilo y «dress code», el evento se ha posicionado como un espacio de expresión artística total. En esta edición contará con artistas de la talla de Anastacia, Pixie Lot, Miss Caffaina, La Casa Azul, María Escarmiento o Chica Sobresalto entre otros.- DCode Festival 2025:Septiembre de 2025 en el Campus de la Universidad Complutense de MadridEl DCode Festival es la cita de fin de verano que todos los amantes del indie y el rock esperan. Con un formato de festival de un solo día, es la excusa perfecta para disfrutar de la música en vivo antes de la llegada del otoño.- Love the 90s Festival: 14 de junio 2025Love The 90's Festival es un festival que está enfocado a la maravillosa década de los años noventa. Cinco escenarios con los que disfrutar de un día inolvidable.- Love the Twenties:21 de junio 2025. La mejor música de los 2000 en un solo día para disfrutar de los grandes artistas de esa época en una gran jornada de fiesta.- Festival Río Babel:4 y 5 de julio. El festival cumplirá este año su octava edición con un festival que fusiona la escena nacional con la latina, incluyendo también artistas internacionales. Ir al contenido Madrid in 2025 is shaping up to be an absolute vibe. Whether you're a music junkie, a lover of tradition, or someone who just wants to immerse yourself in Spanish culture, the festival scene here is set to blow your mind. Picture this: colorful street parades are just the start. Imagine dancing under the stars in the heart of the city or catching the latest international acts at one of Europe's coolest music festivals. Whether you're visiting for a weekend or the whole season, Madrid's festival calendar in 2025 is one giant, can't-miss fiesta. Get ready for an unforgettable year!Mad Cool Festival1. San Isidro Festival (May 10-15, 2025)The San Isidro Festival is the biggest celebration in Madrid, honoring the city's patron saint, San Isidro. This week-long festival is a deep dive into Madrid's rich history and traditions, with everything from religious processions to open-air concerts, bullfights, and traditional dancing. Expect to see Madrileños dressed in their finest "chulapos" (traditional Madrid attire) while enjoying street food and local music. It's a blend of religious devotion and city-wide partying.How to Get There: Events are held throughout Madrid, but the main activities take place at Plaza Mayor, La Pradera de San Isidro, and Las Vistillas Park.Tickets: Most events are free, though some bullfighting events may require tickets.Must-See: The pilgrimage to La Pradera de San Isidro, where locals picnic, dance, and celebrate with family and friends.Local Tips: Try the traditional treat "rosquillas" (doughnuts), which are a local favorite during San Isidro.2. Mad Cool Festival (July 10-13, 2025)Mad Cool is Madrid's biggest music festival, and it's no joke. Held in the heart of the city, Mad Cool draws massive international artists across genres—expect everything from rock to indie, pop, and electronic. Past lineups have featured global superstars like The Killers, Billie Eilish, and Arctic Monkeys, and 2025 promises even bigger headliners. Set in IFEMA, a large open space perfect for summer vibes, Mad Cool is a must for any music lover.How to Get There: The festival takes place at IFEMA, which is easily accessible by metro or bus.Tickets: General admission starts at around €100 per day, with multi-day passes and VIP options available.Must-See: The headline acts each night, which always include major international stars and surprise performances.Local Tips: Plan your schedule in advance—there's a lot to see, and getting from stage to stage can take time in the massive venue.Explore the Best Festivals in Madrid 2025 | Mad Cool Festival3. Carnival of Madrid (February 27 - March 5, 2025)Madrid's Carnival brings color, costumes, and lively parades to the streets of the capital. It's a city-wide party full of music, dancing, and creative costumes. The highlight of the festival is the "Desfile de Carnaval" (Carnival Parade), which winds through the city center with floats, street performers, and extravagant costumes. Whether you want to watch from the sidelines or dress up and join in, Carnival is a fantastic way to kick off the spring season.How to Get There: The main events are centered around the Madrid Río park, but celebrations pop up all over the city.Tickets: Free to watch, but some indoor events and parties may require tickets.Must-See: The Carnival Parade is the heart of the celebration, featuring stunning floats and wild costumes.Local Tips: Don't miss the traditional "Sardine Burial" at the end of Carnival—a quirky ritual where a sardine is "buried" to mark the end of the festivities.4. Mulafest (June 27-30, 2025)Mulafest is a unique blend of urban culture, music, and art, making it one of Madrid's coolest festivals. It's all about creativity, with everything from graffiti battles, tattoo expos, street dance competitions, and live music. Held at IFEMA, Mulafest is a celebration of alternative culture where you can explore everything from motorcycles and skating to emerging street art. It's like a giant creative playground.How to Get There: IFEMA can be reached by metro, bus, or car.Tickets: Prices vary depending on the events you attend, starting at around €30.Must-See: The live graffiti sessions, where artists from all over the world create stunning works on the spot.Local Tips: If you're into tattoos, this is one of the best places to see some of the world's top tattoo artists in action.5. Veranos de la Villa (July-August 2025)Veranos de la Villa is a summer-long festival that transforms Madrid into an open-air cultural stage. From July to August, the city hosts concerts, theater performances, film screenings, and dance events in parks, plazas, and outdoor venues across the city. It's the perfect way to experience Madrid's arts and culture scene under the warm summer skies. The best part? Many events are free!How to Get There: Events are held in various outdoor spaces around the city, including the Royal Palace, Matadero Madrid, and local parks.Tickets: Many events are free, though some concerts and performances may require tickets.Must-See: The free concerts held at unique outdoor venues like the Plaza Mayor or the Royal Palace courtyard.Local Tips: Bring a blanket and picnic to enjoy the outdoor performances like a true local.6. Festival de Otoño (October 1-31, 2025)Madrid's Festival de Otoño, or Autumn Festival, is one of the most prestigious cultural events in the city, offering a month-long program of contemporary theater, dance, music, and performance art. It's an avant-garde mix of Spanish and international talent, hosted in venues like Teatro Valle-Inclán and Teatro Español. If you're looking for cutting-edge performances and artistic innovation, this festival is the one to catch.How to Get There: Events take place in various theaters and cultural centers across Madrid.Tickets: Prices vary by event, with tickets ranging from €10 to €50 depending on the performance.Must-See: The experimental theater and dance performances, which often push boundaries and challenge the norm.Local Tips: The festival attracts a lot of international acts, so look for performances in English or with subtitles if you're not fluent in Spanish.7. Fiestas de la Paloma (August 12-15, 2025)This traditional neighborhood festival takes over Madrid's La Latina district every August. Fiestas de la Paloma is a lively celebration of Madrid's local culture, complete with street parties, concerts, and a religious procession honoring La Virgen de la Paloma. The streets are packed with people dancing, eating tapas, and enjoying live music, giving you an authentic taste of Madrid's festive spirit.How to Get There: La Latina is centrally located and easily accessible by metro.Tickets: Free for all events.Must-See: The procession of La Virgen de la Paloma and the late-night concerts in the streets.Local Tips: Wear comfortable shoes—it's a lot of walking, dancing, and exploring narrow streets, especially as the party goes on late into the night.As the festivals of 2025 unfold, Madrid proves it's not just a city—it's an experience. Whether you're captivated by the explosive energy of Mad Cool, enchanted by the timeless tradition of San Isidro, or drawn into the colorful chaos of Carnival, each festival offers a unique way to fall in love with the Spanish capital. Madrid is a city where tradition and innovation dance hand-in-hand, and every street becomes a stage for celebration. You'll find yourself caught between centuries-old rituals and modern beats, from the Fiestas de la Paloma to the avant-garde performances of Festival de Otoño.No matter what brings you to Madrid, the 2025 festival lineup promises to leave you buzzing with excitement, culture, and countless unforgettable memories. Music, art, food, and tradition—all come together to create the magic that makes this city so irresistible. So grab your festival gear, bring your energy, and get ready for a year of non-stop fun.Stay tuned for more insider tips and festival highlights right here at Woke Waves Magazine!#MadridFestivals #MadCool2025 #SanIsidro2025 #CarnivalMadrid #Mulafest #VeranosDeLaVilla #FiestasDeLaPaloma #MadridCulture The Spanish capital is renowned for its musical scene, surprising every year with an electrifying beats of rock and electronic music to the most alternative indie melodies, Madrid's festivals promise a vibrant mix of genres, bringing together an incredible variety of artists and styles. From timeless classics to the most innovative new acts, the city is gearing up to offer a unique musical experience that captivates audiences year after year. Mad Cool Kicking off the list is Mad Cool, taking place from 10 to 13 July at the Iberdrola Music Experience venue. This festival will feature an outstanding lineup of international artists, including Iggy Pop, Olivia Rodrigo, Residente, Blondshell, Kings of Leon, Noah Kahan, Gracie Abrams, Weezer, Nine Inch Nails, Alanis Morissette, Benson Boone, and Thirty Seconds to Mars, among many others. Noches del Botánico Another unmissable event among Madrid's festivals in 2025 is Noches del Botánico. Throughout June and July, the Real Jardín Botánico Alfonso XIII at the Complutense University of Madrid will host concerts by artists such as Zahara, Lori Meyers, Kool & The Gang, Roxette, Beth Gibbons, and Carlos Santana with his Oneness Tour 2025. Alma Festival After a successful debut in 2024, Alma Festival returns to Madrid in 2025, taking place from 19 June to 2 July at Parque Enrique Tierno Galván. This year's edition will feature performances by Wilco, The Corrs, Alan Parsons Live Project, Dorian + Miranda, and Riffus Du Sol. Love the 90's Festival For those feeling nostalgic, the Love the 90's Festival will be held on 14 June at IFEMA MADRID's fairgrounds. Expect performances from iconic artists such as Vengaboys, Safri Duo, Chimo Bayo, Jon Secada, and Marta Sánchez. Love the Twenties Festival Love the Twenties Festival 2025 is set to bring back the sounds of the 2000s at IFEMA Madrid, featuring five stages and over 70 artists. The lineup includes Darude, Cascada, Chenoa, O-Zone, and Kate Ryan. A Summer Story A Summer Story is a festival in Madrid for electronic music lovers. Taking place on 20 and 21 June at Ciudad del Rock in Arganda del Rey, the event will feature international stars such as Afrojack, Hardwell, Reinier Zonneveld, Fatima Hajji, and Nicky Romero. Puro Latino Madrid Fest Puro Latino Madrid Fest 2025 will be held on 27 and 28 June at Ciudad del Rock in Arganda del Rey, with headliners including Ozuna, Bad Gyal, and Eladio Carrión. Río Babel The Río Babel Festival 2025, a classic in international music, returns to Caja Mágica in Madrid on 4 and 5 July. Following the success of previous editions, this year's festival will feature performances by Kase.O, Madness, Estopa, and Caravan Palace, among others. Beyond music, the festival has previously featured Babel Comedy, a dedicated comedy space with renowned comedians such as Carmen Romero, Ignatius Farray, and Andrés Fajngold. Tomavistas Tomavistas Festival will take place on 29, 30, and 31 May at Caja Mágica in Madrid, featuring Caribou, Mogwai, and Mala Rodríguez, celebrating the 25th anniversary of Lujo Ibérico, alongside many other artists. Your accommodation to enjoy Madrid's festivals These are just some of the festivals in Madrid that will make this year unforgettable. If you are coming for one of these events, we recommend staying at chic&basic Dot, where you can relax after a day filled with music and excitement. With a modern design and central location that allows you to easily reach festival venues, our boutique hotel in the center of Madrid is the perfect place to rest after attending one of the 2025 festivals in Madrid. Book your stay at chic&basic Dot! Wednesday 21 May 2025 Myke Towers Movistar Arena, Madrid, Spain La Femme La Riviera, Madrid, Spain sematary Teatro Barceló, Madrid, Spain Giulio Wilson and Tonino Carotone Sala Villanos, Madrid, Spain Sergei Babayan Auditorio Nacional De Música De Madrid, Madrid, Spain Big John Bates Fun House, Madrid, Spain Piano Jazz El Café De La Ópera, Madrid, Spain Francesco Tristano Fundación Juan March, Madrid, Spain Thursday 22 May 2025 Rosario Umusic Hotel Teatro Albéniz, Madrid, Spain Jarfaiter La Riviera, Madrid, Spain okgorgio Sala Villanos, Madrid, Spain Ana Curra and Viuda Sala El Sol, Madrid, Spain Mala Gestión Sala Clamores, Madrid, Spain Nasta ALC X Independence, Madrid, Spain Los Chivatos and From Copérnico, Madrid, Spain Belén Natali and Carmen y María Maravillas Club, Madrid, Spain Casapalma Sala Equis, Madrid, Spain Piano Jazz El Café De La Ópera, Madrid, Spain Presidentas Vivas Madrid Sur, Madrid, Spain Thursday 22 May 2025 - Thursday 22 May 2025 IMB Festival Madrid 2025 La Sala, Madrid, Spain Friday 23 May 2025 Rosario Teatro Albeniz, Madrid, Spain Boom Boom Kid Wurliizer Ballroom, Madrid, Spain Samantha Hudson Ochoymedio (Antigua Sala But), Madrid, Spain Diana Navarro Teatro Monumental, Madrid, Spain Mercromina Shôko Madrid, Madrid, Spain Pablo Und Destruktion Copérnico, Madrid, Spain Boyanka Kostova El Sótano, Madrid, Spain Papa Topo Museo Reina Sofia, Madrid, Spain MAXI MERAKI But, Madrid, Spain Tributo A Hombres G Yas'ta Club, Madrid, Spain Shine Teatro Monumental, Madrid, Spain Pablo Rios Sala Juglar, Madrid, Spain Siwomat and Tensura Bordados Sister, Madrid, Spain The Groove Family Casa de campo, Madrid, Spain Vinson Cadavra, Madrid, Spain Mata Sala Clamores, Madrid, Spain Tony Karate Sala Clamores, Madrid, Spain LEV3L and Mano de Piedra Starving, Madrid, Spain El niño de la hipoteca and guu cortés Café Libertad 8, Madrid, Spain Saturday 24 May 2025 IAMX Mon Madrid, Madrid, Spain Joe Crepusculo La Paqui, Madrid, Spain Koimo Yokan Sala Villanos, Madrid, Spain El niño de la hipoteca and guu cortés Café Libertad 8, Madrid, Spain Karmento Teatro Eslava, Madrid, Spain Bora Uzer Istar Club, Madrid, Spain